"CHICKS" vs. "BLUFFS."

The Competitive Drill in the "Manual of Arms" between the Two Crack Military Companies of Memphis, Yesterday, at the Fair-Grounds.

The Chickasaw Guards Victorious in the Contest-It is a Hard-Won Victory, Alike Creditable to the Victors and Vanquished-Etc.

Yesterday was a gala day at the Grangers fair-grounds, some four miles out on the Charleston railroad. The day was announced as being set apart as a general reunion, to which all grangers, farmers, merchants and citizens generally were cordially invited. The attendance from the country districts was not as large as expected, but the crowd from the city was great, about two thousand people being present. The grand and ad-joining stands were crowded with ladies and gentlemen, youths and children, and the great attraction with them was the military contest in the manual of arms between the Chickasaw Guards and Bluff City Grays. The grangers' barbecue, in the forenoon, was most successful, plenty of barbecued meat being provided for all. It might not be amiss to state that the barbeone and entertainment was not the work of the grangers as a body, but was an enterprise gotten up by two or three gentlemen, and by t they made a thousand or more dollars When the military companies agreed to drill at the fair-grounds, they thought that the admittance to the grounds would be free, but The members of Natoma temple of honor occupied seats on the stage. To-night another meeting will be held at the same place, would be seventy-five cents, and twenty-five would be seventy-five cents, and twenty-five and at three o'clock this afternoon a children's temperance meeting will be given at the Jefferson street Varieties Theater. A prayer-meeting will be held at the same place to fifty cents. It ought to have been twentyrom twelve to one o'clock in the afternoon. | five cents. Indeed, the drill ought to have —T. B. it will be better managed. THE DRILL. At a quarter-past four o'clock the Chicka-saw Guards took the field in front of the grand stand, and commenced work. The udges were as follows: For the Chickasaw Guards-Mr. Avery Lamb, ex-licatement of the company; for the Bluff City Grays-Mr. -Mr. James Elder and other subscribed sufficient money to erect a water-trough for horses in front of one of the gates of Court square. All the beautiful trees, numbering thirty or more, which erst appeared so charming on the Main street side of the square, are dead and gone, having astablishment of a hack of their movements laid down in Upton's tacticts under that head, in brilliant style. Many of their movements were excellent, while peared so charming on the Main street side of the square, are dead and gone, having been killed by the establishment of a hack stand in front of them. The hack stands are stand in front of them. The hack stands are of their movements were excellent, while others were imperfect. It was remarked by others were imperfect. It was remarked by will wither and die. There is an old saying that the man who makes two blades of grass grow where one grew before, is a public hor committed, but no company errors were charged up to them by the judges. A company error counted tweaty-eight, the number of men in line participating in the contest. The "Chicks" drilled for three-quartest. ters of an hour, and then marched off the grounds amid the applause of the spectators. The Bluff City Grays then took the field and went through the manual and the movements as laid down in the tactics. They performed a greater number of movements than did the "Chicks," a greater variety, but all of them were in the book. The "Bluffs" MR. SAMUEL SHOUP, one of the clever and committed a number of individual errors and enterprising business men of Michigan City, Mississippi, is in Memphis, where he is always welcome.

Mr. Frazier T. Edmondson, who has been attending the Lebanon law school, is arms out obliquely from the body instead of horizontally, and this was an error of mag-nitude on the count. When they closed their drill they were greeted with vociferous ap-plause. Indeed, if the judgment as to the contest had been left to the spectators the "Chicks" would have lost, and the "Bluffs"

The "Chicks" were recalled and were put through the manual for ten minutes by Lieu-tenant Holmes, United States army. They went through the sergeant's salute, which they neglected to do before, and did it cor-rectly. The "Bluffs" were also recalled and were drilled for ten minutes by Lieutenant Holmes. This closed the event, and the judges retired to consider a verdict. It was generally believed that the "Bluffs" had won, and even many of the "Chicks" gave up the contest. But the judges had kept the score of errors, and these little dots of the pencil told fearfully against the "Bluffs." Many who had bet on the "Chicks" commenced "hedging" in order to get even, and but few bets could be secured except in odds in favor of the "Bluffs."

ANNOUNCING THE RESULT. The judges, who had retired, now appeared and mounted the grand stand. There was a hush of public expectancy and a solemn sience as Lieutenant Holmes announced the result from the stand. He stated briefly that in behalf of the judges he was authorized to lecide the contest in favor of the Chickasaw Guards. He was of the conviction that it was the closest contest he had ever seen. Mem-phis ought to be proud of her military comoanies or organizations. They were the artiicers of their own fortunes, and had succeeded. He believed that the echoes from St. Louis in the great military contest this fall would be favorable to Memphis, etc. His remarks were loudly applauded, in which applause the Bluff City Grays joined heartily.

THE CLOSING SCENE. At the close of the announcement, Captain Cameron, of the "Bluffs," made a short speech, in recognition of the reception of numerous bouquets presented to his compan-by the ladies who occupied the grand stand Captain Carnes, of the Chickasaw Guards. also made a brief speech, and wound up by stating that the contest was close; that the "Bluffs" did remarkably well, and that he did not believe any company in the State, except the Chickasaw Guards, could defeat the Bluff City Grays. This closed the entertainment, and the lowering and threatening clouds began to sprinkle rain amid thunder and lightning. The crowds of people hurried to the station to await the excur sion train. They remained there until the incoming regular train passed and reached Memphis, when the excursion train came out and took on board the entire crowd and con-

rived at eight o'clock. THE SCORE NOT PUBLISHED. Our reporter endeavored last evening to get the score of points from the judges, but these gentlemen had not made up the score-book. When Noah sent out the second dove from the ark, she returned bearing an olive branch, and they knew the flood was receding; we formed our reporter that the judges were unanimously of opinion that the Chickasaw Guards had won-that they made fewer individual errors than did the Bluff City Grays, and made no company error; but that Tenn: "I have prescribed for my patients the Bluffs made one company error, which Colden's Liebig's liquid extract of beef and was counted against them. It would be well, and probably more satisfactory, if the judges would publish a card, giving the manner of keeping the score, the points counted, and the result in detail as to individual and company errors. The result, as announced, has given some dissatisfaction, although no doubt correct from a strict mili-tary standpoint, and no little hard feeling and bitterness have resulted, but all this will pass away in due time. The "Chicks" have reason to rejoice over their victory, and the "Bluffs" have no reason to feel badly. They gave the "Chicks" a close contest, which showed them to be friendly "foemen worthy of their steel." Let the This is motion day. The following cases "formen worthy of their steel." Cincinnati has won more games in a given time than any club since the league organization. May the west win the championship pennant for 1878.

To those interested in the welfare of the Memphis Reds of 1877, we give below the disposition of the nine: Doc Kennedy and Ike Burkalow, catcher and pitcher, Rochester, New York; Walker, first baseman, ruled out of the international league for jumping his St. Paul contract last year; Jack Shoupe, second base, Crickets; Brookshaw, third base, unable to play from accident at Terre Haute last season while with the Reds; Red-mond, short stop, Milwaukee; Maloughney, r. f., Amateur club, Baltimore; Loftus, c. f., Springfield, Illinois; Billy Moore, l. f., Eck-fords, of Memphis. Wednesday's Games.

THE UMPIRE WINS FOR BOSTON. Boston, May 22.-The seventh game belayed this afternoon, resulting in favor of the Bostons. Cary was jumped upon at the last game in Boston by Burdock, causing a sprained ankle, and Hines was sustituted for kim at short stop. Murnan was put down in center field in place of Hines and Brown on first. Nichelas pitched, Cary being laid up with a sore arm, and among those disparagements, numerous errors and fearful decisions of the umpire, the game was lost to Provi-dence. Higham and Murnan made terrible errors, and though Providence out-batted Boston, they were unable to keep up with their opponents until the last inning. ecisions before this had been made by the impire, and now, when victory perched cn the Providence banner, the game was thrown by the umpire, and with but only two runs to make. Men were on bases and good batters coming in, when a Providence man wrongully was declared out at second. Eleven to ten was the score: Bostons, 12; Providence 10. Runs earned—Bostons, 3; Providence Providence Two-base hits-O'Rourke, 1; Higham, 1 Brown, 2. Three-base hits-Leonard, 1 irst base on errors—Bostons, 8; Providence, 2. Struck out—O'Rourke, 1; Nichols, 2. Balls called off Bond, 13; off Nichols, 13. Strikes called on Bond, 25; on Nichols, 20. Double plays—Weight and Morrill. Passed balls—Snider, none; Allison, I. Wild Pitches—Bond, 2; Nichols, 1. Time of game—2 hours and 15 minutes. Umpire—

G. F. White, of Lowell. PROVIDENCES SIDE OF THEIR DEFEAT. The Bostons, aided by an umpire from lowell, defeated the Providence Providence on the twenty-second instant, about three thousand persons being in attendance. Cary sprained his ankle, and Cory had a sore arm, which caused the substitution of Hines at short and Nichols a pitcher, while Muran played center field. Nigham and Muran made terrible errors, and although they outbatted Boston, they were unable to keep up with them until th last inning. Bad decisions before this had been made by the umpire, and now, when vic-tory perched upon the Providence banner, the game was thrown by the umpire and with only two runs to make. Men were on bases and good batters coming in when a man was wrongfully declared out at second base. Score—10 to 12.—Exchange. FOREST CITY BEARS THE ERIES.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, May 22.-The fourth natch game between the Eries and Forest Citys was played yesterday at Erie. The playing throughout was very fine, and a good crowd was in attendance. Weather fair. The following is the score by innings: Forest Citys, 5; Eries, 2. Errors—Forest Citys, 8; Eries, 9. Earned runs-Forest Citys, 2; Eries

FOREST CITYS MISS AGAIN. CLEVELAND, O., May 22.—The fifth match game of base-ball between the Forest Citys and Eries was played in Erie this afternoon Up to the sixth inning the game looked extremely dubious, the Eries having made three runs and the Cleveland boys nothing. After that, however, the tide turned, and by heavy batting of the Forest Citys and desultory playing by the Erics, the game was easily won by the former. The following is the score, Eries first to bat: Eries, 3; Forest Citys, 15. Field Notes from All Points.

d is officially denied The Buffalos play the Tecumsehs in London Friday next (Queen's birthday). Bushong, late of the Buffalos, has been released. He immediately signed with the The small boys up in Chicago were hunt-ing through the South park Wednesday for the ball which Pike knocked out of sight Tuesday.

The report that the Auburns had disband-

Remsen has taken an awful tumble. He was put on the Chicago nine to lead the batting. He played ten games, making two base-hits, all told, and has now been dropped to the tail-end of the batting order. The game played Wednesday afternoon at Newington park, between the Waverly club, of Baltimore, and the New Bedfords, of Massachusetts, resulted in an easy victory for the New England boys by a score of 13

The players on the Utica nine are "kicking" at the way they are treated, and say they were employed to play ball and not to live in a gymnasium. The dissatisfaction may be the cause of so many defeats of late, and the Utica manager had better remedy it.
